

The Marvel of This Night

Christ Our Redeemer Lutheran Church

Christmas Eve 2018 - Pastor Mark Voss

Invocation

He was light	coming into a world of darkness.
He was love	coming into a world of hate.
He was life	coming into a world of death.
He was peace	coming into a world of strife.
He was righteousness	coming into a world of sin.
He was hope	coming into a world of defeat.
He was God	coming into a world of humanity.
He is our Savior	and we begin in his name.

P: Heavenly Father, Jesus was with you in the beginning, but we did not recognize him. He came into our world, but we did not welcome him. He came to his own, but we did not receive him. We are sorry for the sins of the world, and more sorry for our own sins.

C: Forgive us for not making room in our hearts for Jesus. Pardon our rejections of him and of those filled with his light. Grant that we might spread his light and grace to give life to our world.

P: As the angels told the shepherds that first Christmas Eve: "Do not be afraid. We bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord." Rejoice! Through Christ we have peace with God.

C: Amen.

Prayer of the Day

P: Almighty God, you made this holy night shine with the brightness of the true light. Grant that as we have known on earth the wonder of that light, we may also behold him in all glory in the life to come; through your only Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

The Word

Isaiah 52:7-10 God reveals and humankind sees

⁷ How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, “Your God reigns!” ⁸ Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they shout for joy. When the Lord returns to Zion, they will see it with their own eyes. ⁹ Burst into songs of joy together, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the Lord has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰ The Lord will lay bare his holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

Verse of the Day

P: Alleluia. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you, he is Christ the Lord. Alleluia.

Luke 2:1-7 - The Christmas Gospel

¹In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. ²(This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) ³And everyone went to his own town to register.

⁴So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. ⁵He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, ⁷and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Luke 2:8-14

⁸And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. ⁹An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. ¹¹Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

¹³Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, ¹⁴"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom his favor rests."

Psalm 98

¹ Sing to the Lord a new song,
for he has done marvelous things;
his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

² The Lord has made his salvation
known and revealed his righteousness to the nations.

³ He has remembered his love
and his faithfulness to Israel;
all the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation of our God.

Christmas Eve Prayer

P: On this holy night, dear Father, we rejoice to hear the good news of great joy that a Savior has been born for us. For fulfilling your prophecies and in the fullness of time sending your Son to be our Savior, we give you our heartfelt thanks and praise.

C: Unto us a child is born! Unto us a Son is given!

P: What a great mystery of our faith is this: that God has become fully human for our salvation. Even though he is the all-powerful Lord of all, he is wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger.

C: Help us always believe that this precious child was born as our substitute to be our Savior.

P: In the midst of our joy, we grieve, for the many people in our world who do not know that Jesus has come to bring them forgiveness and healing. As the shepherds spread abroad the good news of the birth of the Savior born for all the world, may we also make use of the unique opportunities this holiday presents to tell others of what we have seen and heard concerning the child.

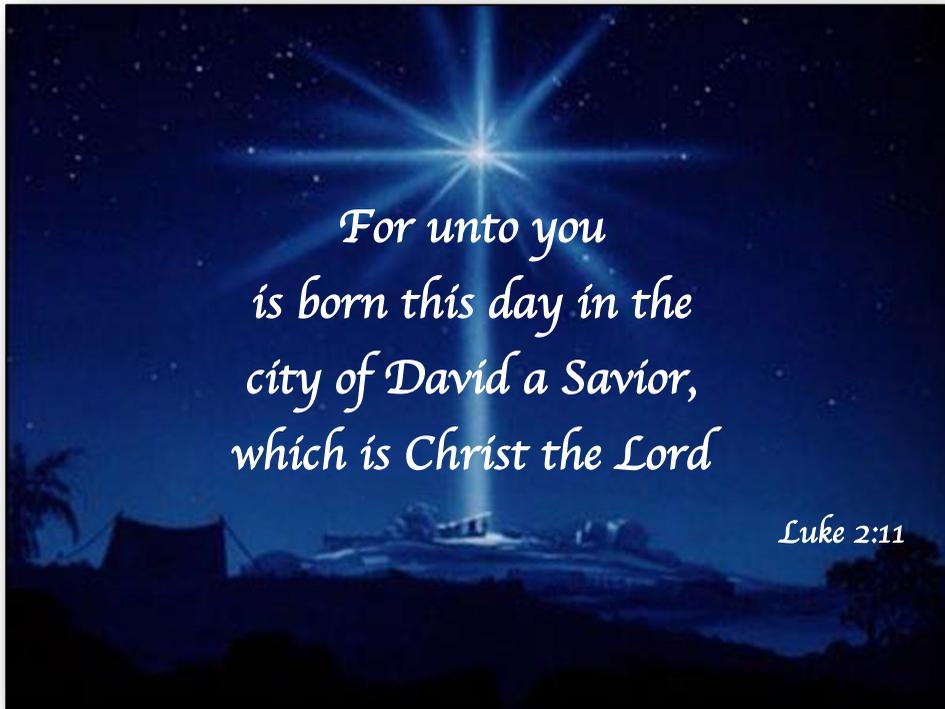

C: Grant that the true peace between God and fallen mankind may comfort all people.

P: Hear us Lord, as we bring you our private petitions.

Silent prayer

P: As the angels sang out their praise, move us to sing out our praise to you, today and everyday as the joy of Christmas remains in our hearts.

C: Glory to God in the highest! Amen.

*For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior,
which is Christ the Lord*

Offering

Lighting of the Candles Parents, please use your discretion on whether your child should have his or her own candle. We suggest at least 8 years old. Do not tip a lighted candle! Tip only an unlit candle to receive the flame.

Introduction to Silent Night – Choir

“Peace, Peace”

Peace, peace, peace on earth and good will to all.

This is a time for joy. This is a time for love.

Now let us all sing together of peace, peace, peace on earth.

The congregation will join in singing Silent Night printed on the next page as directed.

Si - lent night! Ho - ly night! All is calm, all is bright,
Si - lent night! Ho - ly night! Shep-herds quake at the sight.

Extinguishing of Candles Please cup the flame with your hand as you blow the flame out and return the candle as they are gathered.

Benediction

P: May God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, shine in your hearts, and may the simple message of his birth give you joy all your days.

C: Amen.
